(b) the number of Community Irrigation Wells that are incomplete in Aurad taluk; the reasons for the same;

(c) the extent of area now being irrigated by the completed Community Irrigation Wells; whether assessment of water rate has been increased for such lands;

(d) the names of farmers who have been getting the benefit of the completed Community Irrigation Wells in each village;

(e) whether one Community Irrigation Well has been completed in the land belonging to the brother of the President TDB, Aurad at village Chikli (Udgir) and that no other farmer gets any benefit from that well;

(f) whether at village Mudhol (K) Taluk Aurad Community Irrigation Well has been taken in the land of one Deverao Patil father of contractor Vishwanatharao and the other farmers, Chander Rao Patil Prabhu etc., whose names have been mentioned as beneficiaries do not get a drop of water;

(g) the action in matters were such Community Wells are dug in one man's land and only one man is benefited to the exclusion of other beneficiaries will be taken?

Sri N. RACHAIAH (Minister for Community Development and Social Welfare):

(a) Two wells

(1) Mudhol (K)

(2) Sorhalli

(b) Five wells in the village of Kalaganur, Santhapur Jozna, Thanakushnur and Chimmegan. The reasons for the incompleteness of these wells are: (i) non-execution of works by the village representatives, (ii) no contractor was forthcoming to take up the work.

(c) At Mudhol (k)-4 acres is brought under irrigation. At Sorhalli-The water is being used for drinking purposes due to drought conditions. Hence water rate has not been assessed.

(d) At Mudhol (k)-the following persons are getting the benefits :

- (1) Sri Madhava Row Hanumantha Rao
- (2) Chandar Rau Yadav Rao

At Sorhalli—Water is not being used for irrigation purposes. The question of utilising water by the beneficiaries does not arise.

(e) No.

(f) The community irrigation well has been sunk in the field of Sri Deva Rao father of Sri Vishwanatha Rao contractor resident of Mudhol (K). The other beneficiaries are Sri Chandurao Patil and Sri Prabhu. It is learnt that Sri Chandu Rao Patil had taken water previously. The owner of the Sy. No. in whose field the well is dug has not obstructed the other beneficiaries for using the water for irrigation purpose.

(g) No such cases.
